

Pilot Club International Sets Convention Dates

Members of the Pilot Club of Torrance will be taking an active part in the 13th Annual Convention of District 18 of Pilot Club International. The Convention will be held April 21, 22 and 23 at the Hotel DeAnza in San Jose, with the Pilot Club of San Jose serving as the Hostess Club.

Two members of the local club have been serving during the past year as District Officers. Mrs. Joseph A. De-

Jaifre as District Governor and Miss Mae Sleep as District Secretary. Mrs. DeJaifre will preside at the Saturday and Sunday business sessions and also at the luncheons on Saturday and Sunday and at the formal Banquet on Saturday night.

At the opening reception on Friday evening, Mrs. DeJaifre will be the guest of honor, along with Pilot International director who is Mrs. Lola M. Stettmund of Oklahoma City and Miss Ruth E. Cunningham, Second Vice President of Pilot International. Miss Cunningham is a member of the Pilot Club of San Gabriel Valley, California. The reception is to be held around the swimming pool. The entertainment will be barber shop music by the San Jose Pilots, who will be in Gay Nineties costumes.

Other members of the Torrance Club who will be serving on committees for the Convention are Mrs. Mary Young, who will serve on the election tellers committee; Mrs. W. Whittington will serve on the credentials and registration committee and Mrs. Herma Tillim will serve as a member of the nominating committee for district officers. Miss Mae Sleep, who will conduct a workshop during the Convention for club publicity chairmen.

Executive committee representative who is Mrs. Lola M. Stettmund, will be the speaker at the Saturday luncheon. The decorations and favors will carry out the Parisian theme of "Spring time in Paris."

The new district officers will be installed at the Saturday night banquet by Mrs. Oneta K. Swain, past governor of the California district. Mrs. Lola M. Stettmund, Pilot International director, will install the new governor as a member of the board of directors of Pilot International.

Speaker at the Saturday night banquet will be Willard E. Schmidt, director of the Police School of San Jose Police college and professor of penology. The Mayor of San Jose, Paul Moore, and Mrs. Moore will also attend the banquet.

The closing luncheon on Sunday will feature the Japanese decor in honor of San Jose's sister city and their pacific, neighbors program.

Delegates to the Convention will be Mmes. Mary W. Young, Herma Tillim and Joseph W. Burchfield. Alternates will be Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. John W. Whittington and Miss Mae Sleep.

HEDGES
Hedges also serve to screen out unwanted views and to insure privacy. They act as a buffer against sound or as a shield against the wind. They define different areas of the garden such as a service yard or play area. On occasion, they even provide a foundation planting for the

AAUW Presents Muriel Wolfson in 'Two Lives'

Joint meeting of the Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills, and San Pedro branches of the American Association of University Women, which is set for 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the Malaga Cove school, will be presided over by Mrs. Donald Limerick, president of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch, since this serves as the regular General Meeting for that branch.

Mrs. Limerick will introduce Mrs. Lowell Dunham, president, and Mrs. James W. Clemenger, program chairman, of the Manhattan Beach Branch, and Mrs. Graydon K. Hofferber, president, and Mrs. Nicholas Zorotovich, program chairman, of the San Pedro Branch. She will then introduce Mrs. H. C. McLenden, program chairman of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch, who has made the arrangements for this joint meeting.

Since the theme for the April General Meeting of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch is "Service through Education," it is part of the Education study section's activity for the year, and Mrs. Joseph Goodwin, study group chairman, will have the pleasure of introducing Muriel Wolfson in her presentation of "Two Lives," the story in dramatic monologue form of the life of Helen Keller.

Members of the three branches are looking forward to meeting together and enjoying a program of such common appeal.

Bride Claimed by William H. Tolson

At the Judson Memorial Baptist Church in San Bernardino at 12 noon, Tuesday, April 11, William H. Tolson claimed Mrs. Ruth Carson as his bride.

Responsibility Of Americans to Save Money

A top Treasury Department volunteer advisor told a group of key Federal Department and Agency heads today that there is "no better way to underline the personal responsibility of every American in making effective our National security policy than by urging him to accumulate savings, a substantial part of which should continue to be in U.S. Savings Bonds."

Howard D. Mills, chairman of the Treasury's National Advisory Committee for Savings Bonds, was principal speaker at an interdepartmental luncheon meeting at the Biltmore Hotel, hosted by R. H. Moulton, state chairman.
